Reflection

Today's Gospel is read in the special context of Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent. This is a time that we usually experience very intensively. It is often at this point that we make resolutions about our life of faith. Some of them have been dragging on for years because we haven't been able to fulfil them, or we don't have a good insight into ourselves and we don't know what we need most. The Church, on the basis of the Gospel, has for centuries suggested to us an effective program that can help us change our hearts. Three great works of penance, three great aids on the path of conversion: almsgiving, prayer and fasting. This is the order in which Jesus speaks of them. First, there is a gesture of merciful love towards those in need. Then there is a humble prayer to the Father who is in secret. And at the end, there is fasting, which purifies our body and senses. These works of penance are intertwined and mutually necessary. And all this is not for show, but for God our Father.

Lord Jesus, I need a change in my way of thinking. I want to walk a purifying path from my selfishness to a beautiful and free love for my neighbour and for You. Amen.

Sunday 11th February World Day for the Sick

For all who are sick; may they be restored to fullness of health or come to know dignity in their suffering.

For doctors, nurses and all who care for the sick and the dying; may they bring Christ's love and compassion to all whom they care for.

Day for the unemployed

For all seeking work or unable to work through disability or illness; may they place their trust in the God of new hope and beginnings.

For politicians and all who work with the economy; may they always remember the poor and those who have least.

Let us keep in our prayers those who are sick and housebound in our parish including Canon George, Matthew Waters, Liz Berry and Maggie Deutrom.

The Season
of Lent

As we prepare for Lent which starts this Wednesday (Ash Wednesday) it is good to prepare our hearts for what God would like to do for us ...

The Gospel we hear on Wednesday at Mass needs to be heard in the special context of Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent. This is a time that we usually experience very intensively. It is often at this point that we make resolutions about our life of faith. Some of them have been dragging on for years because we haven't been able to fulfil them, or we don't have a good insight into ourselves and we don't know what we need most. The Church, on the basis of the Gospel, has for centuries suggested to us an effective program that can help us change our hearts. Three great works of penance, three great aids on the path of conversion: almsgiving, prayer and fasting This is the order in which Jesus speaks of them.

First, there is a gesture of merciful love towards those in need.

Then there is a humble prayer to the Father who is in secret. And at the end, there is fasting, which purifies our body and senses.

These works of penance are intertwined and mutually necessary. This is not for show, but for God our Father.

Lord Jesus, I need a change in my way of thinking. I want to walk a purifying path from my selfishness to a beautiful and free love for my neighbour and for You. Amen.

Fasting on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday

The law of fasting requires a Catholic from the 18th to the 59th birthday to reduce the amount of food eaten from normal. The Church defines this as one meal a day, and two smaller meals which if added together would not exceed the main meal in quantity. Such fasting is obligatory on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. The fast is broken by eating between meals and by drinks which could be considered food (milk shakes, but not milk). Alcoholic beverages do not break the fast; however, they seem to be contrary to the spirit of doing penance.

We are also called to abstain from eating meat on these days. The savings resulting from this are to be offered as alms.

Those who are excused from fast or abstinence include those outside the age limits, those who suffer from mental illness, the sick, the frail, pregnant or nursing women according to need for meat or nourishment, manual labourers according to need, guests at a meal who cannot excuse themselves without giving great offence or causing enmity and other situations of moral or physical impossibility to observe the penitential discipline.

Caritas at Lent

"Do not turn your face away from anyone who is poor" (Tob 4:7)

In his message for World Day of the Poor 2023, Pope Francis reminded us that faith teaches us that every poor person is a son or daughter of God and that Christ is present in them. "Just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me" (Mt 25:40). Lent is a time of prayer, fasting and almsgiving in preparation for the resurrection of the Lord at Easter. Caritas Diocese of Plymouth has created a Lent Calendar (at the back of the church) to suggest ways in which we can use this time for prayer, reflection and action as the service of the poor. Just a few small actions each week can make a positive difference. Access the digital version of the poster at <https://bit.ly/4bxexm3>
