Axminster Foodbank

A big THANK YOU! Thanks to your help, there has been an increase in donations recently, enabling us to support around 100 people every week, for which they are extremely grateful. If you can spare any food items such as tins of soup, beans or veg, jam, biscuits, tea bags, please put them in the plastic box in the church porch.

Seaton Foodbank

Last week, Seaton helped 17 adults, 3 children and one tiny baby for food. We now need long-life semi-skimmed milk, squash, tinned tomatoes, tins of meat for hot meals; tins of chicken and chilli con carne, small tins of fruit, rice pudds, small washing powder/liquid, tomato soup, savoury paste, marmalade, washing up liquid, hot choc (made with water), large pads and large adult pull-ups (Tena).

Thank you to all for your generosity.

Reflection

As we listen to the Gospel for this Sunday, we are given guidance on the importance of having a living connection with Jesus. Jesus uses another very eloquent allegory, this time about the vine and branches to communicate to us. The Father is the one who cultivates the vine.

This would have been known to Jesus' listeners from their familiarity with the Old Testament (Isaiah 5). In Isaiah the vineyard was Israel, here the vine is Jesus. His disciples are twigs growing from a vine. The Father ensures that the branches bear fruit. Therefore, he performs two actions:

he cleanses those that bear fruit and cuts off those that do not bear fruit so that they do not burden the vine. A branch does not bear fruit if life-giving juices do not circulate in it.

The one who abides in Jesus, that is, is in a lasting relationship of living faith with Him, brings abundant fruit.

So every person has a choice: either to accept the teachings of Jesus and the principles of His Gospel and persevere in making his life fruitful, or to condemn himself allowing the death of life that God has given each person.

God's intention is for us to bear fruit through living communion with Jesus.

*Father, I desire to be grafted onto the divine vine – Your Son Jesus.
I want to take root in Him, draw from His grace, so that my life may be fruitful. Amen.*

I am the vine,
you are the branches.
