New Church Lectionaries

You will be aware that the Parish has needed to order new lectionaries for all three churches, as the old ones will become obsolete in the coming year. This has cost the parish in excess of £1485.

If you would like to donate towards the cost, your name will be inscribed as a donor in the new liturgical books.

Reflection

Jesus sends his disciples to call for conversion, and for their journey He equips them with unique gifts: power over unclean spirits and the power to heal the sick. Healings of spirit and body are signs that confirm the power and importance of the Word they preach.

Disciples are to maintain an attitude of poverty, material things cannot burden them and cannot prevent them from freely proclaiming the Good News. The one who preaches the Gospel must be free internally, in other words, pure, and must remain free externally, that is, poor, dependent on the Father's providence, trusting in the power of the word he proclaims.

During the time Jesus walked on earth, holy haste was also important. The time of His public activity was very short, and there was a lot to convey. That is why the disciples had to devote themselves to the work of evangelization with such great commitment.

Lord Jesus, in order to become a credible witness of Your Gospel in the modern world, I must have a free heart. I am asking You for the grace of complete freedom, which will allow me to proclaim Your love without fear of the world. Amen.

Exeter Male Voice Choir Summer Concert

Axminster War memorial re-dedication ceremony Monday 15th July - 9am

To mark the restoration and reinstatement of our WW1 war memorial, there will be a ceremony outside St Mary's Church to mark the occasion, similar to the one that took place 105 years ago when the war memorial was first installed.

Our parish school children will be involved in the celebration and everyone is welcome to join. This is a significant parish occasion which gives us an opportunity to stop, reflect and pray in thanksgiving.
