Sunday 15th November – Thirty-third Sunday in OT

November Prayers & Masses for the Dead
We have several means by which we can offer our prayers this year. First, we will have a remembrance garden where we can place a poppy cross with our loved one's names on them. Second, we have our Holy Souls envelopes within which we place our lists of the dead for us to pray for along with a Mass offering. These Mass offerings are for Masses for the Holy Souls, and any funds remaining after November will spread Holy Souls Masses throughout the rest of the year. For individual Mass intentions, please continue to use the white Mass Offering envelopes.

Catholic Children's Society, Plymouth Notice
Did you know 70% of shoppers will do their Christmas shopping online this year? And did you know this shopping can easily turn into funding for CCSP? Everyone's retailers like eBay, Amazon, Argos, John Lewis, M&S, Boots, Dunelm, Waterstones and more will donate money to CCSP when you shop with them online. It's very easy – you buy something from one of the above retailers or 8,000 others, and the retailer sends CCSP a donation, at no extra cost to the shopper. Register at www.easyfundraising.org.uk to support CCSP whilst you shop this Christmas and all year.

Christmas Candles Sale
There will be handmade Christmas candles, made from recycled church candles, for sale after Mass on 6th December at Axminster and Lyme churches. All proceeds to the Catholic Children's Society (Plymouth).

Safeguarding Sunday 'Love protects' - 15th November
This Sunday we mark the annual celebration of 'Safeguarding Sunday', a national event, created by Thirtyone:eight, the UK's only independent Christan safeguarding charity. Martin Christmas-Nelson, Head of Safeguarding at the Diocese of Plymouth, has written an open letter marking this event which is available to read on the parish website, or you can request a copy from the parish office.

Time to bring in your Red Missio boxes!
Please bring in your Missio boxes to church for counting no later than 30th November. Thank you!
